Corporate

AA Travel & Tourism INC

AA Travel & Tourism has successfully operated as a specialist corporate travel organisation company. Wholly owned by renowned individuals, much of our success is a direct result of our dedication to personalised service. Each client, big or small, gets exactly what they need. This level of service is why we have retained our strong position in the market - we know that it gives us a distinct advantage over the multinationals. Booking flights and accommodation does not involve a great deal of science or mystery. Most travel management companies are capable of delivering similar travel transactions. The difference lies in the willingness and ability to make the booking process pleasant, the travel experience efficient and the cost as low as possible. AA Travel & Tourism is in a unique position - we are able to combine the buying power of a multinational with the ability to provide distinctive service. We provide efficient management of your travel needs in a way that saves you time, effort and money.

We are the perfect size to be your partner.
